

First Day of Expanded Service - October 1, 1886

Usage of the first issue was extended to all of the 4000 plus first class post offices.

New York, N.Y. to Meadville, Pa., Oct. 1, 1886
First day of expanded service to any first class office

Only recorded example

Terre Haute, In. Greenfield, Ma., Feb. 4, 1889

Manuscript note: "To be delivered at once. If Greenfield is not a Special Delivery office Send by messenger who will be paid."